Elizabeth Arvidson Receives Academic Achievement Award

San Antonio, TX – Elizabeth Arvidson was recognized for her outstanding academic achievement by The International Conference of Funeral Service Examining Boards at their recent annual convention that took place February 28-29, 2008. Out of over 1,400 students from across the country who sat for the science section of the National Board Exam of The Conference in 2007, Arvidson made one of the two highest scores.

Arvidson received her award Friday night at the President's Banquet at the DoubleTree Hotel San Antonio Airport in San Antonio before a gathering of mortuary school and regulatory agency representatives from across the United States and Canada.

Ms. Arvidson is currently an apprentice funeral director associated with Fred C. Olson Funeral and Cremation Services in Rockford, Illinois.

Arvidson earned her bachelor's degree in religion from Drake University and received her Associates of Applied Science Diploma in Mortuary Science from Worsham College of Mortuary Science.

The International Conference of Funeral Service Examining Boards is headquartered in Fayetteville, Arkansas. Founded in 1904, the membership of The Conference is composed of funeral service licensing and regulatory agencies throughout the United States and Canada.
